Tim Boncoskey Receives Member of the Year Award From International Association of Assessing Officers

KANSAS CITY, Mo. - The International Association of Assessing Officers (IAAO) is pleased to announce that Tim Boncoskey, Chief Deputy Assessor for Maricopa County, has been named the recipient of the 2012 Member of the Year Award.

The Member of the Year Award is presented to the IAAO member who, in the previous calendar year, has made a significant contribution to the association through active participation in its activities and who, in his or her career, has made an outstanding contribution to the realization of the mission of the IAAO.

Mr. Boncoskey currently serves as an IAAO Representative and Chair of the Councils and Sections Committee. He was previously Co-Chair of the Local Host Committee for IAAO's 77th Annual International Conference on Assessment Administration held in Phoenix, Ariz., in 2011. He has been a member of IAAO since 2006, and he has worked hard to promote IAAO education and standards in his region through the Arizona Chapter of IAAO where he has twice been President.

This award was presented during a ceremony at IAAO's 78th Annual International Conference on Assessment Administration held at the Kansas City Convention Center in Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 9 – Sept. 12, 2012. IAAO Awards recognize excellence in various areas of the assessment profession, ranging from public information programs to journalistic reporting to industry research.

IAAO is the leading nonprofit educational and research association for individuals in the assessment profession and others with an interest in property valuation and taxation. IAAO's mission is to promote innovation and excellence in property appraisal, assessment administration and property tax policy through professional development, education, research and technical assistance. IAAO currently serves over 7,000 members worldwide, and celebrated its 75th anniversary in 2009.

For information on IAAO, the conference or awards, visit www.iaao.org or call (816) 701-8100.
